Dear Sir;-

I have been asked to find out the value of a coin found among the effects of one of our clients and was told by Mr. W. P. Duvall, Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of this Company that you could advise me thereof.

The coin is an English gold piece of George II, bearing the date of 1759. It is in splendid condition on both sides, is about the size of a 25¢ piece, though not quite so thick.

I would appreciate your giving me an idea of its approximate value, if you can do so from this description.

Very truly yours,

Hugh F. Watts
